

BIPOC Scholarship Applications

2023-2024

Scholarship Opportunities:

- Full, Half, and Partial Scholarships are available
- Half & Partial Scholarships may also be applied to sliding scale tuition
- You may apply for scholarship funds regardless of financial need, however financial need is one of the factors taken into consideration for recipient selection
- We have limited scholarship opportunities available - if we are not able to accommodate your original request but additional funds are raised before the program commences, your application may be re-considered

Scholarship Requirements:

- Scholarships recipients must be Black, Indigenous, or a Person of Color
- Scholarships recipients must be enrolled in the full program (not audit), maintain attendance requirements, and demonstrate the desire to apply themselves throughout the program
- Please thoroughly review the syllabus prior and assess your ability to commit to the workload prior to applying
- Review the Sliding Scale document to determine your income bracket prior to your interview
- Please submit an essay describing why you're interested in taking the course, what draws you to the Northern Appalachia School, and what you hope to do with your education. This may be submitted via email to contact@northernappalachiaschool.com

Deadlines:

- Early Registrations applicants must apply and submit their essay by February 15th, 2023, and you will receive a response by February 28th
- Regular Registration applicants must apply and submit their essay by June 15th, 2023 and you will receive a response by June 30th
- Scholarship offers must be accepted with 7 days of proposal